2.7.19	CM meeting with [REDACTED] in the EO office	CM meeting with [REDACTED] in the EO office. [REDACTED] indicated sometime last year, he began using the app "Grinder" which he indicated is primarily used by the LGBTQ+ community. [REDACTED] said it is not uncommon for people to not have profile pictures on their profiles. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] did not have a photo on his profile- and messaged him. [REDACTED] requested a photo and immediately recognized [REDACTED] as a Western Administrator, as he had participated in the [REDACTED] program [REDACTED] indicated he then blocked [REDACTED] on the app. [REDACTED] said at various times- he has had that he attended WWU in his profile information, but not always. [REDACTED] indicated he is always recognizable in his profile- he includes a picture that clearly shows his face. [REDACTED] said when a person is blocked, the person who did the blocking no longer appears on the app for the blocked person, but the person who was blocked is not notified. [REDACTED] said if a person deletes the app, then re-downloads it, their blocked contacts are not saved in the app. [REDACTED] said he had deleted and re-downloaded the app a number of times. As a result, [REDACTED] said the same thing as described above ([REDACTED] would have no picture on his profile, he would reach out to [REDACTED] who would request a photo- then once [REDACTED] realized who he was talking to- he would block [REDACTED] happened approximately 6 times over the course of Winter and Spring Quarter, 2018. [REDACTED] said he went home for the summer and was not contacted by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said the app is location based- so it only shows you the profiles of individuals who are in your immediate geographical area). [REDACTED] said he returned to Western in September, and on October 10, 2018, [REDACTED] again messaged him. [REDACTED] indicated he again asked for a picture- and when he realized it was [REDACTED] he became irritated. [REDACTED] said he told [REDACTED] for the first time, that he knew he was an administrator in [REDACTED] at WWU and did not feel comfortable and asked [REDACTED] to please leave him alone. [REDACTED] said he believes [REDACTED] then blocked him. [REDACTED] said months went by and there were no concerns until January 14, 2019. On January 14, 2019, [REDACTED] participated on a panel discussion that [REDACTED] was also included. [REDACTED] indicated this made him uncomfortable and he positioned himself as far as possible from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said he started using another app called "Scruff" and over the weekend of 2/2-2/3, he had been contacted by a person over that app. [REDACTED] said the person had a picture of his chest that did not include his face. [REDACTED] said the person told him he was discrete due to his job. Upon looking closer to the profile picture, and noticing the profile name included [REDACTED] initials. [REDACTED] said he realized he had again been contacted by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said he again asked [REDACTED] to leave him along and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] indicated he had been interested in using a [REDACTED] through [REDACTED] but his assigned [REDACTED] would have been [REDACTED] [REDACTED] indicated he did not want [REDACTED] to lose his job- but said he just

		wanted to be left alone. [REDACTED] identified the following outcomes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Be left alone by [REDACTED] not be contacted through any apps or other means. 2.
